

DEED OF WAQF FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES

This deed of Waqf is made on the.....day of.....20..... by, .....
(hereinafter called the waqif).

Whereas the waqif is the owner and in possession of the properties described in the Schedule hereunder and is desirous of dedicating the said properties in the service of Allah and to be used for charitable purposes.

Now this deed of Waqf witnesses as follows:

1. That I, the Waqf, hereby transfer, dedicate to Allah and declare as Waqf all that property more particularly described in the schedule annexed hereto, the approximate value whereof is _____.
2. That I shall be the first mutawalli of the Waqf property with power to nominate the next mutawalli and/or acting mutawalli in my absence / if I die, he shall continue to act as such mutawalli and shall be deemed to be the mutawalli with the like powers and subject to the like obligations and duties as myself. All acts done or deeds executed shall be valid and binding as if the same had been done, exercised, executed, taken or had by me or a duly appointed lifetime mutawalli.
3. Each mutawalli whether nominated by the preceding mutawalli or appointed in the manner prescribed in the succeeding clause shall exercise the similar powers and be subject to the same duties and obligations and enjoy the equivalent privileges as are applicable to me or any succeeding mutawalli.
4. In case of any vacancy arising in the office of the mutawalli which cannot be filled up by nomination as aforesaid, the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction shall be entitled to appoint a fit person professing the Islamic faith, after hearing.

5. The mutawalli shall manage the Waqf property to the best of his ability and may for such purpose engage or employ managers, agents, contractors, accountants or other assistants as may be conducive to the carrying on of the objects of the Waqf efficiently and economically. The mutawalli may delegate any of his functions to a committee of persons subject, however, to the retention of the supervisory control by the mutawalli whose decision in all matters affecting the Waqf shall prevail.

6. The income of the Waqf property after defraying the expenses of its upkeep, management, repair and renovation shall be utilised for, among others, the following objects:

- (a) Provide free healthcare services to the less privileged;
- (b) Organise free community medical outreach;
- (c) Support the administrative activities of Sakinah health centre.

7. The mutawalli may accept donations, grants, presents, offerings and other moneys and properties for the purpose of carrying out the object of the Waqf and convert any property into any other kind for more effectively carrying out the objects of the Waqf, wherever necessary, with the consent of the Board of Waqf.
